The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, MARCH 28TH, 1907.

The epithet rare, that is the mark of the writer, according to a member of a French school which seems to work on the assumption that it matters less what you say than how you say it. A good deal of highly appreciated poetry might have to be thrown overboard, were there not something true in that assumption. The value of the writings of LACORDAIRE HERN has lately been the subject of more discussion than usual, and we find a writer in the Japan Chronicle, by no means incapable of appreciation, commenting as follows:—"We are forced to the conclusion, both from his books and his letters, that HERN was neither a good interpreter of events in progress, nor a safe guide in matters of fact. He was a literary artist, a stylist with an ear for cadence in words and beauty in phrase. But his interpretation of Japan was purely subjective from first to last. He was a mystic rather than a philosopher, one who dreamed dreams, and thought them real, not a judicious critic or a judicial investigator into matters of fact." Half Irish, half Greek, this Celtic spirit was further complicated by early acquaintance with human injustice, and twisted by precocious familiarity with emotional religion in Wales. Always a scribbler, he had opportunities for acquiring mental breadth before settling down in Japan, but he seems to have gone through his many buffets as a sea-anemone might, expanding only to congenial appearances. He does not seem to have ever learned to laugh, and a cut finger was a tragedy, not to cry over, but to write about. J. M. BARRIE might have modelled his "Sentimental Tommy" on certain aspects of HERN's genius. He must certainly was a genius, and amply shares the right of genius to defy conventional consistency, discovering new points of view every day, and elaborating them while completely ignoring their predecessors. He was no synthesist; the system of his philosophy was the no-system of dream-land; and we awake after reading him as we awake from pleasant dreams, regretting the cessation of the thrill and feeling that they were at once true and unbelievable. HERN was a very conscious craftsman, but his works do not betray that. We learn that he was a conscious artist from his friends, and have just come across a memoir that confirms it most interestingly. His Japanese wife has written an account of his death, which arrived too late for insertion in Mrs. Weymore's Life of the author, and is printed for the first time in the Atlantic Monthly. This account, written apparently in such English as a lady with such a history might write it, is, we hope, authentic. It is so very pretty. When his culminating pains were upon him he made preparation for the benefit of his family, and said to his wife: "Never weep if I die. Buy for my coffin a little earthen pot of three or four cents worth; bury me in the yard of a little temple in some longsome quarters." This sort of thing, seemingly, went on for some days.

"It was a few days before his departure, Osaka, a maid, found a blossom intimately blooming in one of the branches of the cherry-tree in the garden. Now the bloom was beautiful, to look. But I felt at once my bosom trouble for some apprehension of evil, because the naturally bloom is considered in Japan as a bad omen. Anyhow, I told him of the blossom. He was interested, as usual. 'Hello!' he said, and, immediately approaching to the railing, he looked out at a blossom. 'Now my world has come—it is warm like spring,' said he; then, after a pause, 'but soon it will bloom cold, and that blossom will die away.' This blossom was upon the branch until the 27th, when toward the evening its petals scattered themselves loneliness. I thought the cherry tree, which had HERN's warmest affection for these years, responded to his kindness and bade good-bye to him.

On the "sad, last day," HERN was early busy with pen and paper. Entering his workroom at 6.30 a.m., his wife found him so.

"He seemed to be thinking over something, but upon my salutation he said, his 'good-morning,' and told me that he had an interesting dream last night, for we were accustomed to tell each other when we had a pleasant dream. What was it? I asked. He said: 'I had long distant journey. Here I am smoking now, you see. Is it real that I travelled or is it real that I am smoking? (The world of dream!') Thus saying, he was pleased with himself."

How the good wife gives the genius away. No man is a hero to his valet, they say; and perhaps no phrase-maker is a mystery to his wife. "Thus saying, he was pleased with himself." One can see the poor fellow asking his lips, so to speak, over the last conceit of his brain; the complacency of the craftsman over "the epithet rare." That the inspiration happened to be of somewhat humble sort did not matter; the machine was sadly worn, but it was still working. That is how we—how his admirers will be glad to remember him, "pleased with himself," for it was on the same day, as his wife tells us, that "he was no more the man of this side of the world. As if feeling no pain at all, he had a little smile about his mouth."

The Daily Press will be issued as usual to-morrow (Good Friday), but there will be no paper on Saturday.

The last mail papers from London comment on the firmer prices of China tea.

Mr. Bryce's predecessor at Washington had £7,800 a year. Mr. Bryce is to receive £10,000.

The two French cruises announced in our yesterday's issue to have started for Morocco are, according to Reuters, the Jeune d'Arc and Luland.

At the Magistrate's yesterday Mr. Melbourne sentenced a coolie to fifteen days' hard labour and four hours' stocks for having stolen 95 brass tins from houses in Wanchoi.

It is thought that the Russo Japanese Trading Company, Limited, which is in course of formation in St. Petersburg, will not improbably result in important developments in the cotton trade.

A European named Blackmore, a storekeeper on the Kowloon Railway, was summoned for refusing to pay ricksha hire and also for assaulting the coolie. He failed to appear and his bail of $10 was estreated.

Mr. Keir Hardie, attending a Labour meeting at Cambridge, was severely mobbed by undergraduates. He is not a young man, and though he holds some peculiar opinions, the young British Samurai who assaulted him have not covered themselves with honour or glory.

The screw sloop Rinaldo and Vesuvius, up till recently familiar figures on the coast, were condemned and placed on the non-effective list some months ago, are to be given a new lease of life as sea-going tenders, the former to the Cambridge, gunnery ship; and the latter to the Excellent. Both are now in dock at Sheerness.

Kobe now has a St. George's Society, inaugurated on March 19th.

On the 10th instant a foreign gentleman in Kobe received a letter from Yokohama dated February 19th. On examination of the postmarks it was found that this letter was posted in Yokohama on February 19th, reaching Kobe on March 1st. It duly turned up in Kobe, as stated, on the 10th. The address is typewritten and perfectly legible.

The official organ Journal de St. Petersburg announces that the Russian Government has been negotiating with certain foreign Powers with regard to the establishment of coaling stations for the Russian Navy at certain points on the coastline of the Pacific, and that the conferences which have been held so far have met with serious difficulties.

This (Thursday) evening at the Union Church Literary Club, the closing social and business meeting will be held. A musical programme has been arranged and during the course of the evening the Secretary's report of the session now ending will be delivered, and the election of new Officers for the ensuing session takes place. Mr. Frank Browne will take the chair.

In regard to the permission given for the importation of 1,000 Italians into the North of Queensland sugar plantation to take the place of the Kanakas, who are being repatriated, Mr. Deakin states that every permit stipulates that preference shall be given to Britons, but if Britons are unavailable, labourers will be secured from Germany, Scandinavia, and Northern Italy.

A heavy case some coolies were "loving" with bamboo poles last evening in Des Vaux Road fell over on its side and one of the coolies had the misfortune to get his right leg broken. Mr. Fang Wa Chan, who happened to be passing at the time, promptly telephoned to the Tang Wah Hospital for an ambulance which was at once dispatched and the injured man was removed to the hospital for treatment.

The first half-yearly report of the Kobe Sugar Refining Company, which has just been published, shows that the total net profit for the period has amounted to ¥12,977. Of this sum, ¥1,500 has been placed to the legal reserve, ¥500 to the reserve for the maintenance of machinery and buildings, ¥400 paid for bonuses to the officials, and ¥10,027 for a dividend at the rate of 20 per cent. per annum, while a surplus of ¥1,057 has been carried forward.

The export of mirrors in China and Korea continues to increase year by year, and the annual value of the export now amounts to about ¥1,250,000. All the manufacturers of looking-glasses are at present doing business on a very small scale, which is hampering the growth of the export. According to the Osaka Jiji, some influential capitalists in Osaka are taking steps to form a company with a capital of ¥500,000 for the manufacture of mirrors. It is proposed to purchase a mirror factory, which is now turning out the article to the value of ¥250,000 a year, to start the company, and subsequently purchase smaller factories as favourable opportunities occur.

The cotton-spinning business in Japan continues in a very satisfactory condition from last year. So favourable is the business that the profits of the spinning companies in Japan about Osaka for the present half-year, closing next month or June, as the case may be, is estimated to be over 10 per cent. more than for the last half-year. The Amagasaki Spinning Company is the most successful, says the Osaka Jiji. This company has not undertaken an extension of business as has been the case with other companies, and does not require funds for that purpose. It declared a dividend at 50 per cent. for the last half year, with a deposit at the bank of ¥1,200,000. The result of the working of the company for the present period has been more satisfactory, and the net profit is estimated at about ¥500,000, it being expected that at least ¥300,000 to ¥350,000 will be devoted to dividend, equal to between 80 and 100 per cent.

A secret Russian Commission has been sitting of late engaged in investigating serious charges. The officials who have been brought to task are Lieut. Gen. Dessine and State-Councillor Pavlov, formerly Minister at Seoul. During the late war these officials were employed at Shanghai in providing Port Arthur with food and ammunition. In carrying out, or pretending to carry out, that most important work, these officials spent £3,200,000, and now they can produce vouchers and receipts for not more than about £300,000, and many of these vouchers are very doubtful. The Secret Commission was appointed by the Ministry of War, and Gen. Frolov, formerly Chief of the Headquarters Staff, and now member of the Council of War, has been its President. The Commission has proved that even if Gen. Dessine's statements are accepted, for he kept no books, there remains still the sum of from £1,000,000 to £1,000,000, of which no trace can be found, although it is known that the money was spent by the two officials at Shanghai.

CHRISTENDOM MILITARISING CHINA.

A SCATHING REBUKE.
In a paper by Mohammed Barakatullah, in the American Forum, the writer reminds his American readers that China needs neither imports nor exports, and can do without foreign interference.

The Chinese have the best food in the world, rice, the best drink, tea, and the best clothing, cotton, silk, and fur, and, possessing these staples and their innumerable native adjuncts, they do not need to buy a cent's worth elsewhere, while their empire is in itself so great and they themselves so numerous, that sales to each other make an enormous and sufficient trade, and export to foreign countries is unnecessary.

But the most striking passage of the paper is its close—

Let those who still preach the gospel of force hear what John Chinaman says, and which, in the opinion of this writer, is soon to be realised:—

"Yes, it is we who do not accept it that practise the Gospel of Peace; it is you who accept it that trample it under foot, and—irony of ironies!—it is the nations of Christendom who have come to us to teach us by sword and fire that the Right in this world is powerless unless it is supported by Might. Oh, do not doubt that we shall learn the lesson. And we to Europe when we have acquired it. You are arming a nation of four hundred million—a nation which, until you came, had no better wish than to live at peace with itself and all the world. In the name of Christ you have sounded the call to arms; in the name of Confucius we respond."

CHINA SUGAR REFINING CO. LD.

The twenty-ninth annual general meeting of shareholders in the China Sugar Refining Co. Ltd. was held at the office of the general agents, Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co., yesterday morning. Hon. Mr. W. J. Gresson presided, and there were also present Sir Paul Chater, Messrs. A. G. Wood, F. Matland and A. J. Raymond (consulting committee), J. Barton (secretary), A. Rodger, F. E. Ellis, P. C. Potts, G. H. Balloch, A. Turner, F. Smyth, T. Hunter, A. Rodger, A. C. Moss, Wm. Cruickshank, E. C. Arculli, E. O. Arculli, Captain Rolfe, Captain Clarke, Messrs. Ho Fook, Ho Wing, Ho Tang-yang, Ng Hon-chi, Wong Iwong-lim, Lo Cheung-shui and Chea Deep-chee.

The SECRETARY read the notice calling the meeting and

The CHAIRMAN said:—Gentlemen, with your permission I propose to adopt the usual custom and take the report and accounts as read. During the first three months of the year under review there was a good demand for the Refinery's sugars in the northern markets of China, which, as you are aware, form our chief outlet, and considerable forward sales were made at prices which though below the abnormal level reached in the year 1905, still left a fair margin of profit. During the next three months, however, large supplies of sugar from Java and Japan began to press upon the local markets, already stocked to their full consuming capacity, with the natural result that prices rapidly declined and it was impossible to effect any sales of importance during the second half of the year in quarters where there has usually been a steady demand. Competition became keener and keener, not only in the matter of price but also in the quality of the sugar produced, and when I tell you that to keep pace with our competitors we had to raise our standards all round you will readily understand that the cost of production has very materially increased. In former years it has usually been possible when local conditions have been adverse, to find an outlet for our sugars in the more distant markets, such as India, Australia, etc., but I regret to say that during last year this was not the case as those markets were able to obtain supplies at prices with which we could not compete. You will readily appreciate therefore that the year was beset with difficulties, as with our outlets curtailed in the manner above indicated it was impossible to work the refinery except on a much reduced scale, involving, as is always the case, greater expense and loss of interest.

With regard to accounts, you will observe that we have still the sum of $345,741 at credit of raw sugar reserve account, and this will enable us to write down the cost of raw sugar melted during the current year. The amount due to sundry creditors has again reached large figures, $1,49,730, and as in the past this sum has been provided by your general agents. From what I have outlined above you will, I think, agree with me that the result of the year's working, as disclosed by the accounts presented to you, enabling us to recommend a dividend of 88 per cent. without trenching upon our realisation of dividend fund, is upon the whole not so unsatisfactory as it might have proved. Regarding the present outlook, I regret that the unsatisfactory conditions obtaining last year are still with us, supplies of sugar are large, prices of refined—owing to keen competition—abnormally low, and the prospects at the moment the reverse of encouraging. You are well aware, however, that our business is one liable to wide fluctuations, and if the experience of the past is any guide to the future it follows that sooner or later a favourable reaction will set in.

No further information was sought and the CHAIRMAN proposed the adoption of the report and accounts as presented.

Mr. TURNER seconded, and shareholders agreed.

Mr. SMYTH proposed, Captain Rolfe seconded, and it was agreed that Sir Paul Chater, and Messrs. A. G. Wood, A. J. Raymond and F. Matland should be re-elected to the consulting committee.

Messrs. W. H. Potts and H. Percy Smith were re-appointed auditors on the motion of Captain Clarke, seconded by Mr. BALLOCH.

The CHAIRMAN—Dividend warrants will be ready on application to-morrow, gentlemen. Thank you for your attendance. I hope that you will spare us a few minutes longer for the extraordinary meeting which is to follow.

EXTRAORDINARY MEETING.
An extraordinary meeting was then held, the same shareholders being present.

The SECRETARY read the notice calling the meeting and the resolutions which were to be proposed.

Mr. BALLOCH then proposed, and Mr. TURNER seconded, that the Articles of Association be altered in accordance with the notice just read.—Carried.

Mr. SMYTH moved that the change in the Company's Articles of Association, according to the notice read, come into force and take effect from May 1st, 1907.

Mr. POTTIS seconded the motion, which was agreed to.

LUZON SUGAR REFINING CO. LD.

The twenty-fifth annual general meeting of shareholders in the Luzon Sugar Refining Co. Ltd. was held at the office of the general agents, Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co., yesterday afternoon. Hon. Mr. W. J. Gresson was in the chair, other shareholders present being Messrs. A. G. Wood and H. P. White (consulting committee), Mr. A. J. Barton (secretary), and Messrs. J. C. Pater, H. N. Moly, E. J. Moss, C. H. Ross, F. P. Soares, A. Ramjahn, R. Miller and P. Tesdor.

The SECRETARY read the notice convening the meeting, after which,

The CHAIRMAN said:—Gentlemen—The report and accounts having been in your hands for some days, I propose in accordance with the usual custom to take them as read. I regret that the results of the year 1906 are not more satisfactory, especially as it was found possible to keep the Refinery working during the greater part of that period, but, as was the case elsewhere than in the Philippines, the prices obtained for refined sugar owing to keen competition were low, and the margin of profit small. You will have observed however that there is on the credit side of the account a gain on working of $17,454.46, which was unfortunately absorbed by the two items appearing on the debit side of Interest and Loss in Exchange. The charge for interest is of course inevitable so long as the Company has no working capital, and the loss in Exchange was caused by the necessity of converting our assets into Hongkong currency at an unfavourable rate on the 31st of December. I may mention that the cost of upkeep of the Refinery when silent was found to be between $8,000 and $9,000 per annum, and you will see therefore that although the sum at debit has been increased by the year's operations by $5,934.91, it would have been still greater if the works had remained silent. There has been a fair demand for the Refinery's sugars since the beginning of this year, and the works have been kept going, but owing to large supplies of other sugar and low prices, prospects in the immediate future are not as bright as I could wish. As in previous years when the Refinery has done badly, the General Agents have waived their commission and the Consulting Committee their fee. If any shareholder has any question to ask I shall be pleased to answer him.

No questions were asked, and the CHAIRMAN proposed the adoption of the report and accounts as presented.

Mr. MOY seconded and the motion was carried.

Mr. TESTER proposed the re-election of Messrs. A. G. Wood and H. P. White to the consulting committee.

Mr. RUMJAHN seconded and shareholders agreed.

Mr. A. B. Lowe was re-appointed auditor on the motion of Mr. SOARES seconded by Mr. ROSS.

The CHAIRMAN—Thank you for your attendance, gentlemen. Will you be good enough to wait for the following meeting because we cannot hold it unless you all stop.

EXTRAORDINARY MEETING.
An extraordinary general meeting was then held at which the same shareholders attended.

The SECRETARY having read the notice calling the meeting and the alterations it was proposed to make in the Articles of Association. Mr. MILLER moved that Articles of Association be altered in accordance with the notice read.

Mr. TESTER seconded, and the motion was agreed to.

Mr. PETER moved that the changes in the Company's Articles of Association, according to the notice read, come into force and take effect from and including May 1st, 1907.

Mr. RUMJAHN seconded, and the motion was carried.

The CHAIRMAN—Thank you, gentlemen, for your attendance. I regret the delay in getting a quorum.

PURSE SNATCHING.

A case of purse snatching on the street was reported to the police on Tuesday night. About 7.30 Miss Elvira Day, of 25 Wyndham Street, and a companion were walking up Wyndham Street, after having purchased flowers at the bottom, and at the corner of Wellington Street a Chinaman dashed from behind and snatched the satchel which was attached to her wrist. A CATHOLIC PRIEST CONDEMNING THE POPE.

“Three Years and a Half of Pius X.” is the title of a vigorous polemic “by a Catholic priest” in the North American Review. The writer declares that the present Pope is a man whose simplicity and intentional simplicity it is impossible to doubt. When he promised that his motto would be “To renew all things in Christ,” the thoughtful Catholics, weary of Pontiffs that were great diplomats, great builders, great theologians, hoped for a great Christian. Would he evoke the thirty years’ anathema on the kingdom of Italy, or would he sacrifice and rather than sacrificial temporal dominion? Would he curtail the “unholy monopoly of Italians in governing the Church,” and permit a decent portion of self-government? Would he introduce honesty and truthfulness, firmness and charity? These questions, the writer recalls, received a very decisive answer. Pius X. is a terrible disappointment as Pius IX. was. Of the New Testament spirit there is none, under the present regime, at Rome; and one will have to turn back to some of the most despotic Papal reigns to find a parallel to the bigotry, cruelty, hatred of truth, and defiance of civilization which characterize the Papacy at this hour. The gigantic fabric of centuries of Papal traditions, with their secular aims, their autocratic pride, their invariable stubbornness, and their theoretic professions, has imposed itself upon his mind as a thing appertaining of Heaven, and an inviolable apparatus of dogmas upon which it would be sacrilege to lay irreverent hands. The ecclesiastical mind is so drilled in addition to dogma as to lose the elementary insight into Christian heart; as, says the writer, witnesses the Dominican inquisitor. He adds: “As Pius X. is not a genius, his culture is severely mediocre, he has submissively surrendered to the historical Papal spirit, and has made himself believe that it is of God.”

By way of illustration, the writer alludes to the Pope's refusal to receive the French President after the latter had visited the Italian King, and his Holiness's protesting against the action of France. The consequent indignation of France, recalled the French Ambassador at the Vatican, and made the dissolution of the concordat inevitable. The continuance of the demand for temporal power has given the young Italian choice between patriotism and apostasy. The Pope has pursued the whole movement of Catholic Democracy. The National Democratic League, composed of the free spirits in the Catholic Democracy, has come under Papal censure. Any priest joining it is, ipso facto, suspended. The writer adds:

All this is an old, old story, opposition to liberty, anathema against civilization, hatred of the light, and if any Catholic in his zeal for the Church, speaks out in behalf of the light, smashes him with the bludgeon of condemnation!

Towards the recent advances of historical and biblical criticism the same hopless attitude is maintained. “Our best scholars have been condemned,” the writings have been put on the Index, and a violent effort is being made by the official theologians of Rome to close the door in the face of scholarship. The policy of Pius X., says the writer, “can be characterized in no other way than as a brutal assault upon enlightenment.” He could fill a page with the names of high-minded Catholic scholars who have suffered outrage to their convictions during the present pontificate. He instances “the ablest Jesuit author in English,” Father George Tyrrell, who, for refusing to republish the authority of a pamphlet dealing with certain relations between criticism and theology was expelled from the Society of Jesus, and suspension—that is to say, was forbidden to exercise priestly functions or to receive the Sacraments of the Church.

The writer expresses public opinion to insist that the Pope, which will never come spontaneously from Rome or from the episcopate. He closes by saying:

When Catholics tell their priests and bishops face to face, that they are sick of Italian government without consultation, and Italian taxation without representation; when Catholic scholars refuse to sacrifice their reason at the dictation of the Roman tribunals which, in 1853, decided that it was damnable heresy to hold that the earth went round the sun; and when the people, by every organ of public utterance open to them, demand the purification of Catholicism, they are, and will till they are willing, then, and not till then, the duty to govern by the New Testament will be a truth, and not a sham and a falsehood as it is now. The Edinburgh Review, in a paper on Catholic Authority and Modern Society, observes—

The present Pope, who as Patriarch of Venice was considered a Liberal Catholic, since he threw himself into the study of social questions, such as the housing of the poor and the relations between capital and labour, has shown himself as Pius X. to be the last of retrograde officials, and the latest exponent of the Syllabus. It seems as if he were anxious to bring to an issue all those differences between the Church and the modern State which Leo XIII. had left in abeyance.

A CHINESE EXECUTION.

One of the results of Sir Peham Warren's, letter to the Shanghai Tribunal the other day, complaining of the dilatoriness of the Shanghai Magistrate in dealing with the desperado sent to the Native City for punishment by the Mixed Court, was the despatch on March 21st of Hu Er-hin, the rascal who shot at and killed Chen Sheng-wei, the chief of the Shanghai police, and a member of the Shanghai city garrison under Captain Chen. It was said that the Chinese official lost no time when once they had started on the case, for after the Shanghai Magistrate had found Hu Er-hin guilty of murder, the man was immediately sent up to the Tribunal on March 20th to get his sentence of death confirmed. An hour afterwards the Tribunal had telegraphed to the Governor, H. E. Chen K'uei-lung, at Soochow about the case and the following afternoon at 3 o'clock a telegram arrived from the Governor ordering Hu Er-hin's summary despatch. An hour later, escorted by the Shanghai Magistrate and his henchmen, a detachment of the Shanghai city garrison under Captain Chen, the murderer was taken to the “Nine Mile Field,” the designation of the military parade ground inside the native city, and there he paid the penalty of his crime. The execution was carried out so speedily, within one hour of the Governor's telegram ordering it, that scarcely any one was aware of the matter until after everything had been finished.
